Icertify that the information contained in this application is true and correct and I understand that prior to the placement of a dog in my home, I will agree to a home visit by someone from the organization and any foster dog will be agreed upon as a suitable fit by both parties and that if at any time this arrangement is not working out for any reason, either party has the right to remove the dog from the foster home. I understand that the foster dog is the responsibility of the organization , and as such , I agree to follow the guidelines provided, to include: keep the collar & tag provided on the dog at all times and never to have the dog off leash outside of a secure environment: not take the dog out of State: not do anything that could knowingly place the dog in danger while in my care. I understand that this is not my dog, and any potential home for the dog must be approved by the organization. creatureKIND acknowledges that all dogs in their care are the sole responsibility of the organization, and any expenses related to the dog, including medical and insurance are covered by the organization in full during the time the dog is in a foster home.
